

Study Abroad Report in Nov. from Surrey, Canada

Hello everyone. I'm M.S. It has been almost three months since I came to Surrey. It seems to be warmer than usual in Canada, and there is no snow in my area yet.

At the beginning of November, each grade level had a kind of sports competition called Pep Rally, where students were divided into four color teams and competed in several games. These games were not mandatory and required a show of hands. I participated in a game in which I had to put a balloon on my foot and run away so that it wouldn't break, but I was frustrated because it broke right away. But my friends stayed until the end and the game ended in a draw.

November was my host brother's birthday, so we celebrated by eating cake together. We had two cakes I was surprised to hear that both cakes were handmade by my host mother. Every day it feels like another week has passed, so I want to spend the rest of everyday with no regrets!

カナダは例年より暖かいようで、私の住んでいる地域ではまだ雪は降っていません。11月の初めには各学年でペップラリーというスポーツ大会のようなものがあり、生徒は4色のチームに分かれていくつかのゲームをして競いました。これらのゲームは強制ではなく、挙手制でした。私は風船を足につけて割れないように逃げるゲームに参加しましたが、すぐに割れてしまい悔しかったです。

でも、友達最後まで残っていて、ゲームは引き分けで終わりました。

11月はホストブラザーの誕生日だったので、一緒にケーキを食べてお祝いしました。ケーキは2つ食べたのですが、両方ともホストマザーの手作りだと聞いて驚きました。

毎日過ごしていて、もう1週間だったのかと感じる日々なので、残りの毎日を悔いのないように過ごしたいです！
